Re: LDSTF Recommendations for Lifelong Learning

Background: We have been using the Library Development Study Task Force Recommendations in our work. Amelea and I have found that the Lifelong Learning ones are challenging to use when deciding where to focus our energies and work towards success. We would like the NAC's assistance on developing new recommendations. The original recommendations can be found at:

http://docs.msl.mt.gov/Central_Services/Commission_Councils/Commission/Archive/2016/02/ldstf_recc.pdf

Questions for the NAC:

- What age groups should we serve?
- What challenges -that relate to Lifelong Learning - are you seeing in your communities that you think libraries could help solve?
- What opportunities related to Lifelong Learning are you seeing in your communities that you think libraries could help achieve?
- What isn't working in our current Lifelong Learning offerings?
- How could MSL help support the work of libraries when it comes to Lifelong Learning?
