

Dungeons and Dragons Gaming Panel

November 5th, 2021

Brian Doyle, Missoula Public Library

Emily Sandersfeld, North Valley Public Library

Lisa Sukut, Livingston-Park County Library

Before We Start

- Session recorded and available on Vimeo afterwards
- Chatbox available
- You are welcome to unmute and ask questions too
- MSL CE available for Montana librarians through ASPeN
- Attendance certificates available for out-of-state librarians
- OPI credit available

Agenda

First 40 minutes

- Dungeons and Dragons Panel and Discussion

Last 20 minutes

- General Gaming in Libraries discussion

Dungeons and Dragons Panel Questions

- How did your program start?
- How did you find people for it?
- How does the DM part work - do you do it yourself, or did you find a volunteer to help?
- Is there a budget associated with this?
- How can you do this online?
- How do you format the actual game, once it's started?

General Resources for Library DnD Activities

Public Library Examples

- Denver Public Library
- Longwood Public Library \(NY\)
- Sachse Public Library \(TX\)
- Scarborough Public Library \(ME\)
- Brooklyn Public Library
- Naperville Public Library \(IL\)
- Topeka and Shawnee County Library

Articles and Links

- Escape for the Isolated, American Libraries from 11/2/2020
- Librarians Report - Dungeons and Dragons in the Library, Games ALA from 9/17/2017
- Public Libraries are Using DnD to Forge Friendships and Build Community, Dicebreaker from 2/18/2021
- Wizards of the Coast - Get Started

General Gaming Discussion

- Board games?
- Video games?
- Ideas you're considering?
- Things you've tried?

Contact Emails for Panelists

- Emily Sandersfeld,
emilys@northvalleylibrary.org
- Brian Doyle,
bdoyle@missoula.lib.mt.us
- Lisa Sukut, lisas@mtlib.org