Carol Speake, Librarian
Bi-Centennial Library
Colstrip, Montana 59323

Dear Carol:

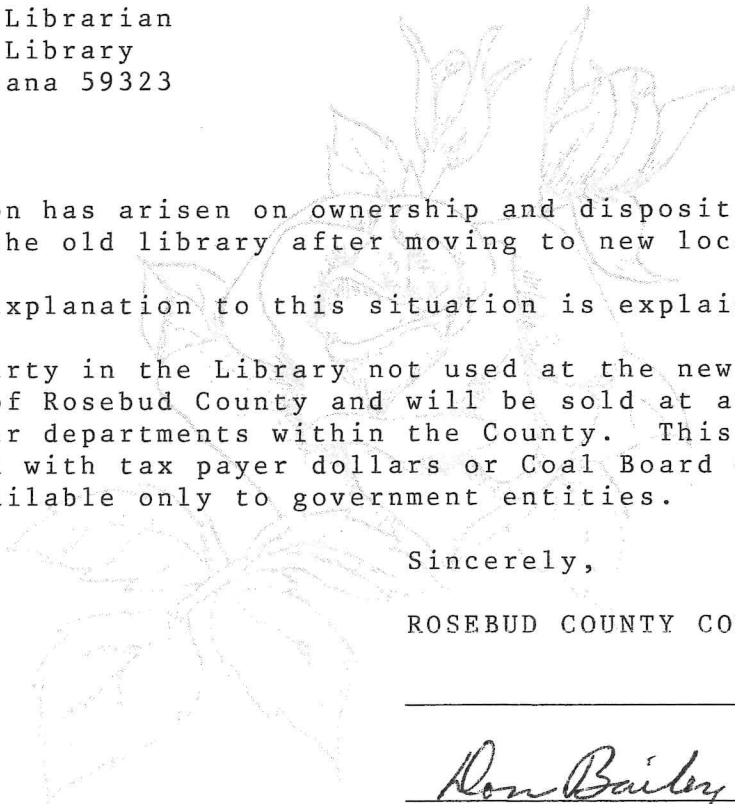

A question has arisen on ownership and disposition of property remaining in the old library after moving to new location.

A brief explanation to this situation is explained this way:

The property in the Library not used at the new location is the property of Rosebud County and will be sold at auction or placed at other departments within the County. This material has been purchased with tax payer dollars or Coal Board Grants. These grants are available only to government entities.

Sincerely,

ROSEBUD COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
